

National Hellenic Research Foundation
Institute of Historical Research

Universität Flensburg

University of Flensburg
Institute of mathematic, scientific and technical literacy
Section of physics, its didactics
and its history

COOPERATION AGREEMENT

Between

The University of Flensburg, Germany / Institute of mathematic, scientific and technical literacy; Section of physics, its didactics and its history
Represented by
Prof. Dr. Werner Reinhart, President of the University of Flensburg

and

The National Hellenic Research Foundation / Institute of Historical Research, Vassileos Constantinou 48, 11635, Athens
Represented by
Dr Vasilis Gregoriou, Director and Chairman of NHRF's Board of Directors

GIVEN THAT

The institutions mentioned above present common characteristics and especially:

- Both institutions have as mission the research on history of science and technology and didactics of science
- Both institutions have as mission the diffusion of historical heritage and scientific and technological culture in a national and international level
- Both institutions consider important to confront and share their methods in these domains
- Both institutions consider important to increase public understanding in the domains mentioned above

IT IS AGREED THE FOLLOWING

Agreement purpose:

The purpose of the agreement is to strengthen institutional relations between the two partners in order to identify and realize common interest activities using the abilities and synergies of both parties.

Frame of activity

The following activities could be concerned:

Research activities

- Collaboration between researchers of the two institutions on common interest subjects.
- Development of research strategies on comparative studies on the development, diffusion and reception of science and technology.
- Conception and development of common interest research projects.

Historical heritage activities:

- Comparison of strategies on the acquisition and valorization of historical and technological heritage, material and immaterial.
- Exchange of experience on the development of knowledge in the domain of the history of science and technology.

Educational and diffusion activities:

- Exchange of experience on formal and informal education.
- Exchange of experience on initiatives about school and university
- Common scientific and technological exhibitions.
- Exchange of experience on the diffusion of advanced research to the public.

Duration

The agreement has five years duration to be prolonged tacitly.

Coordination

A commission of two representatives from each institution will coordinate the cooperation.

This agreement is signed on two originals

For the National Hellenic Research Foundation / Institute of Historical Research

Dr Vasilis Gregoriou
Director

Date:

27/8/2014

For the University of Flensburg
Prof. Dr. Werner Reinhart
President

Date:

11. Juni 2014

